

ATTORNEY EVENT CATEGORIES, EVENTS AND RELIEFS

The screenshot shows the CM/ECF Appellate Event Selection interface. At the top is a navigation bar with links: Docketing, Reports, Utilities, Logout, and Help. On the left is a vertical sidebar labeled "CM/ECF Appellate". The main content area is titled "Event Selection". It includes a "Case:" field with a text input and a prompt "Enter case number as yy-nnnn (e.g., 05-2475)". Below this is the "Filed Date: 04/06/2007". A list of event categories is on the left, with "Appearance form" selected. The right side shows the selected event, "Appearance Filed". At the bottom, there is a section for "Applied Case Selection" with a large empty box, and a status bar showing "Total: 0 Selected: 0" with "All" and "Reset" buttons.

This is a screen shot of the CM/ECF Event Selection menu. To file a document, begin by selecting an “Event Category” from the box or frame on the left side of the screen. Here, “Appearance form” has been selected. The Event Category selection determines the events which will appear in the “Event” box or frame on the right side of the screen. Here, “Appearance Filed” appears as the event related to “Appearance form”. When other Events are docketed, other relief categories or reliefs may be presented. The following list shows the Event Categories which are available for filers, along with the events, relief categories and reliefs available for those event categories. Event categories are shown in red, with events in blue, relief categories in black and reliefs in green.
